COLONEL INSISTS ON THIRD TICKET

Meeting at Jackson Heeds Mandate of Roosevelt.
Dixon Was There.

BULL MOOSE PARTY FORMED

Plan Includes Candidates for Every Office from Coroner to President in Every County.

Michigan "progressives" met, according to call, at Jackson last Saturday and divorced themselves absolutely from the republican party. By an almost unanimous vote the delegates went on record as favoring the placing of an entire ticket, both state and national, in the field. Delegates to the national progressive party convention in Chicago, presidential electors, members of the state central committee and a member of the national committee were chosen.

The following were recommended by the state central committee for state officers: For governor, State Senator L.
Watkins of Jackson; for U. S. senator, T. M. Joslin of Adrian.

Friends of Governor Osborn protested vigorously against the endorsement by the convention of a candidate for governor and insisted that the people should not be offered any suggestions regarding candidates. When the convention endorsed Senator Watkins circulation of Osborn petitions was begun immediately.

Nathan P. Hull of Diamond Lake was recommended by the committee for congressman-at-large, but as he declined to make the race it was decided to leave the naming of the candidate for that office to the Wayne county delegation.

The committee decided to hold the state convention for the official endorsement of candidates selected at the August primaries at Lansing on October 1. Membership in the convention was limited to 750 delegates.

A resolution to select an insignia to head the new ticket brought forth a number of suggestions, none of which was adopted finally. The majority of the committee favored a reproduction of a profile of Colonel Roosevelt, while others suggested the head of the bull moose. The committee will pass on this later.

The platform adopted denounced the Chicago Republican convention as a fraud and endorsed Theodore Roosevelt; the initiative, referendum and recall; direct nominations and elections of state and national officers, including United States senators; graded income and inheritance taxes; a universal parcels post; extensions of the postal savings bank system; federal regulation of all corporations doing interstate business and protection against watered stocks and bonds; regulation of railroad rates, based on the physical valuation of the roads; extension of the powers of the interstate commerce commission; extension of the civil service law to the consular service and woman suffrage.

GET READY FOR THE BIG FEAST

Eight Days of Profitable Pleasure Invite all Your Friends.

Next month is Chautauqua time.
That sounds good to the average Paw Pawite. "The Chautauqua" are words that suggests everything good and enjoyable—the very best lecturers, splendid music, picnic parties between sessions, meeting and visiting with friends that you seldom meet at other times, and a moonlight stroll home eight nights in succession to that dreamless sleep that is produced by happy association and pure thoughts.

The assembly covers eight profitable days from August 17 to 25, inclusive.
We are to have the very best talent—better, our manager tells us than we have had before. Mr. Shaefer's word has always been good here, and when he says good he means just what he says. The only suspicious thing about it, how can we expect anything better than what has gone before?

Never-the-less we will not quarrel.
We are ready to receive all the benefits that may come to us. In another column will be found the program.
Everybody invite your friends to enjoy it with you, and boost for the Chautauqua.

BEAUTIFUL HOME BEING ERECTED

Another splendid residence is being erected under the skillful hands of Richmond & Boble, for Daniel Morrison, on Kalamazoo street. The house is 31½ x 43½, colonial style with buogalow roof and wide cornice which will make an attractive finish. Eleven rooms, hardwood floors with oak finish below and Georgia Pine above, all modern conveniences and artistically designed.
The owner evidently believes in the "trade at home," motto as the building will be strictly "home made." The contractors, re Richmond & Boble, he "Talked to Waters" for a Round Oak furnace and "Max is on the job" for the plumbing.
The house will be ready for occupancy October 1.

ANOTHER DISASTER DURING PAST WEEK

Boys Drowned in Torch Lake, One Had Acquaintances Here.

Sad news came to Prof. P. F. Mc Cormick and family a few days ago, when they were apprised of the truth in the report that Roy Armstrong of Alden and Hugh Vaughan of Mancelona were drowned in Torch lake last Thursday.
The boys are young men who were students in the Mancelona schools during the time that Prof. McCormick was superintendent of schools there. They were members of his high school band.

The town of Alden, the home of Armstrong, is situated on Torch lake and Hugh Vaughan was there as a guest.
The boys had taken a boat and were rowing on the lake to deliver some groceries to resorters. This is the last seen of them alive. The boat was found empty and four days later the bodies were recovered.

Mr. Armstrong was here last winter, the guest of Mr. McCormick, and while here played with our band. He made many friends here during his brief visit who will be sorry indeed to know of his tragic death. The boys were both graduates from high school this year.

KELLOGG DIVORCE CASE IS REVERSED

The following is a dispatch from Lansing taken from a Kalamazoo paper of recent date. The case attracted considerable attention here at the time as the complainant is now living in this county.

"The Kellogg divorce case is at an end and according to an opinion handed down by the supreme court today, Frank J. Kellogg and Vivian A. Kellogg of Battle Creek are still man and wife despite the fact that a decree of divorce with $25,000 alimony was granted Mrs.
Kellogg in Detroit some time ago.

The decision of the lower court, it is said, did not meet with the approval of either Mr. Kellogg or his wife and both appealed to the highest court in the state. Mrs. Kellogg claiming inadequate alimony and Kellogg alleging he and not his wife should have been given the decree.

The opinion was written by Judge Stone.

JUDGE ON AUTOMOBILE TOUR

Judge Prewitt, who has served Placer county, Cal., in the superior court for 24 years, with his son, who is a prominent young lawyer of the same city, made Paw Paw a short visit Monday, July 22.

They were bound for Missouri on legal business, and paid a short visit to Mrs. G. W. Tyler, who is an old time friend and neighbor. The Judge came through to Detroit by rail, purchased an automobile, and will tour the rest of the way in order to see the country. The Judge was highly pleased with the many beautiful cities through which he passed on his way to Paw Paw.

INVITATION EXTENDED.

Don't forget the Battalion picnic to be held at school house grove August 1.
There will be visitors from all over the county and a good time is assured.
The citizens of Paw Paw are especially urged to attend the exercises at the opera house in the afternoon beginning at 1:30.

An interesting part of the program of the day will be the laying of the corner stone of Memorial hall which will take place at 10:30. Wm. Killefer, Post commander will have charge of the ceremonies.

RICHARD C. KERENS, RAILROAD BUILDER AND DIPLOMAT.

AMONG the qualifications which were considered when President Taft appointed Richard C. Kerens ambassador to Austria-Hungary was the fact that he is a Roman Catholic and as such would naturally be more acceptable at the most Catholic court in Europe than a Protestant. Mr. Kerens in 1904 received from the University of Notre Dame the Laetare medal for distinguished service to the church. The ambassador was born in Ireland, but came to the United States in infancy. He served in the Union army throughout the civil war, chiefly in the military transportation department. When the war was over he continued his railroad work on his own account, having been identified with the construction of nearly all the important lines of the south and southwest. He is the owner of extensive mining properties in Colorado, New Mexico and Arizona. He was one of "the original Taft men" of Missouri. The Viennese post is the first which he has held in the diplomatic service.

PAW PAW PASTOR WRITES OF HIS GREAT TRIP THROUGH THE WEST

Since you were so kind as to give my letter from the west space in your interesting paper, I venture to come again with a short account of some of the interesting points on the journey. In visiting Colorado Springs do not fail to take "The Crystal Park" auto trip. It is not expensive, requires but a few hours' time and for scenic grandeur is unsurpassed. This ride by auto is on a smooth driveway of 30 miles. We enter the mountain road near Manitou at an elevation of 6128 feet and the park is reached at an elevation of almost a mile and a half above sea level. As we ascend from point to point the view broadens and grows in beauty. The "Garden of the Gods" with its gateway of two towering rocks 350 feet high is below us, the beautiful Colorado Springs is in full view, and just beneath us, hidden in its bowers of green forest, is the city of Manitou and the old Ute Pass, marking the way into the mountains beyond. Yonder to the right, through a break in the mountain peaks, stretches miles of fertile farm land as far as the eye can reach. And there two great irrigating reservoirs of water that glisten like silver dollars on the plains of green, then higher still and we reach the park, a gem of nature's loveliness, with groves of pine, fir and quaken aspens, the beautiful stream and shining waterfall, and Cameron's Cone, brown and rugged, towering high above it all, is a scene so inspiring as not to be forgotten. In the park we were shown the foundation where a log cabin stood in which John Hay, secretary of state, lived while writing his story of the life of Lincoln.

At Portland, Ore., one will visit points of interest such as City Park, stock yards, Forestry building, Chinatown, etc., but do not forget Council Crest, a popular resort reached by the city carline. It is 1200 feet above the city and on a clear day affords a panorama of great beauty. The city and its environs, the Willamette and Columbia rivers are before you, while in the background rises the massive range of the Cascade mountains and the snow capped peaks of Mt. Adams, Mt. St. Helens and Mt.

Hood are in view.

Here I would mention a most delightful and restful trip: Go by steamer up the Columbia river to the "Dalles," 100 miles and return in one day. From a scenic point of view the valley of the Columbia where it breaks through the Cascade mountains is unrivaled in varied beauty and magnificence. At the beginning of the journey from Portland, field, forest, orchard and garden line the banks of the stream, then massive cliffs begin to rise and we are passing the Palisades, where perpendicular walls of rocks stand from 500 to 2500 feet above the river. There are solitary rocks and points of interest about which cluster romantic stories of pioneer and Indian life, but we have not time to give them.
There are gigantic gorges cutting back into the mountains, where the sides are covered with moss and fern. In many places there are dark green forests of fir and pine in their primeval beauty, odd shaped rocks of peculiar formation and foaming waterfalls. There are many of these falls, the Bridal Veil fall 100 feet high; the Horse Tail fall, 200 feet; and Multnomah fall, 840 feet and of surpassing beauty. The dash and roar of the waters of the river as it rushes over the rocks and through the tortuous channels, the changing beauties of the forests, the glistening waterfalls like long bands of silver trailing down the cliffs, the dark gorges with their receding shadows, a break now and then in the sky line of the rocks permitting a view of Mt. Hood, towering white and serene against the blue of the sky, forms a scene of surpassing beauty and interest.

TICKETS FOR CHAU- TAUQUA ON SALE

The season tickets for Chautauqua are now on sale. A $10 program for $2 is the bargain that Paw Paw is offering this year, to people who attend.
Twenty complete programs for $2, a very small sum for a two hours feast of the very best thoughts of celebrated lecturers and entertainers. We would think nothing of going 20 miles and spending money for transportation and admittance to a lecture given by the same person, and be satisfied with the expenditure, whatever it might cost.

Buy your tickets early and induce your neighbor to buy one—encourage the children to save their pennies and buy their own ticket. Children under 14 years only $1. In other places the age limit is 12 years and the price is $1.25. The Chautauqua is an education and the price is exceedingly low.
August 17 to 25, inclusive.

IMPOSTER TAKES QUICK DEPARTURE

Took to Heels When Father Clarkson Appears on the Scene.

Last Friday a man named Delaney claiming to be an ex-Catholic priest, made his appearance at Lawton and proceeded to harangue the people on the public square on the subject of the iniquities of the Catholic church.
He incidentally mentioned the fact that he had been persecuted and hounded by members of that religious sect, until he feared for his life and the generous collection that was taken up demonstrated that he at least had the sympathy of his audience.

He proposed also to give a free expose of the doings of the Catholic clergy, etc., at a meeting on Saturday night, but in the meantime Father Clarkson of Paw Paw had been notified, and, as it happened was somewhat acquainted with the past career of the gentleman and expected to be present at the expose and show him up in his true light. This fact must have reached the ears of the ex-priest as he suddenly vanished for parts unknown. Father Clarkson, in speaking of the matter to a True Northerner reporter, said that the man had been expelled from the Catholic church for immorality and after working his way into the Presbyterian society, was kicked out of that body also, on the same charges.

NO OPPOSITION TO FULLER FOR AUDITOR

Auditor General O. B. Fuller of Lansing was in Paw Paw last week. He was making an auto tour of the southeastern part of the state in the interest of his candidacy for re-election to the office he now holds. There seems to be no opposition to Mr. Fuller, Dr. Skidmore of Three Rivers, who announced his candidacy some time ago, having withdrawn from the race. Mr. Fuller's incumbency has been marked by a high degree of efficiency and the work in the auditor's office has been taken care of in a manner highly satisfactory to the people of the state.

GLENDALE TRIMMED LOCALS

Very early in the week Landscape Park was the scene of another spirited encounter when the Glendale ball team met and defeated the Heading mill team by a score of 3 to 2. But few witnessed the game owing to the disagreeable weather, but those who were there reported a swift bunch of players present and a first-class exhibition of the national pastime. The two clubs are again to try conclusions at Glendale in the near future.

SUSTAINED SERIOUS INJURY.

Mrs. Sarah Sabin, commonly known to all as "Auntie Sabin," met with a serious and perhaps fatal fall last Saturday evening. She was preparing for the night and had gone into the wood-shed to fasten the doors and in some manner lost her balance and fell from the platform onto the bottom of the shed.
It was some time before she was able to make any of the neighbors hear her cry for help and she was nearly exhausted when at last help arrived.

It was found that she had dislocated her right hip and on account of age and the feeble condition of her body it was deemed advisable not to set the bone in place as she was too weak to stand the operation. She has the sincere sympathy of many friends and neighbors.

WOMEN ORGANIZED FOR STATE WORK

Campaign in Interest of Woman Suffrage to be Pushed

PAW PAW WOMAN PRESIDENT

Mrs. Olivia J. C. Woodman Honored at Meeting at Hartford. Great Worker for Cause.

The meeting called at Hartford July 19 and organized in the county in the interest of Equal Suffrage was attended by representative women of the county.
Mrs. Elora Chamberlain was appointed chairman with Miss Agnes Simmons as secretary.

The plan for county organization presented by Mrs. F. Blankenberg of Kalamazoo was accepted. County officers elected were: Mrs. Olivia Woodman, Pres.; Mrs. Cora Sutton Ferris, Sec.; Mrs. A. E. Thomas, Treas.

A vice president was elected for each township in the county as follows: Mrs.
M. Olds, Hartford; Mrs. L. Sanborn, Lawrence; Mrs. Clara Kennie, Paw Paw; Mrs.
Milan D. Wiggins, Bloomingdale; Mrs.
Margaret Lawton, Antwerp; Mrs. Mable Jones, Decatur; Mrs. Mary Warner Waverly; Mrs. Stella Ferguson, Bangor; Mrs. Mena Pilsbury, So. Haven; Mrs.
Belle Bush, Pine Grove; Mrs. A. Irish, Keeler; Mrs. E. Hutchins, Arlington;
Mrs. A. W. Shannon, Covert.

These are expected to extend the interest of the movement in their own townships and co-operate with the Kalamazoo organization which is at the head of eleven counties. It has been twenty-five years since the proposed amendment was first submitted and Michigan has become one of the leading states in the nation and now joins with Ohio, Wisconsin, Nevada, Oregon and Kansas in this progressive movement.

Among other suggestions for helpfulness at this meeting were the following:
"Arrange for meetings and speeches."
"Get a supply of 'votes for women' buttons, wear them and get the men to wear them."

"Distribute literature on every occasion, either as individuals or as an organization."

"Above all things, remember the men are ready to criticize if the campaign is not conducted in a ladylike manner, and it is possible to wage an aggressive campaign without giving a chance for criticism on that score."

Paw Paw will have several mass meetings in the future. A forenoon session will be one of the attractions for Chautauqua week. Mrs. Stewart, president of the Illinois Suffrage association, will speak here some time in September as will also Mecca Marie Varney. It will be one of the strong issues of the coming campaign.

KIMMEL AGAIN IN FOREGROUND

Says Time is Now Ripe to Expose His Enemies
Brings Suit.

The following from the Chicago Daily Journal adds a new chapter to the Kimmel mystery story which has claimed considerable attention in this vicinity for some time.

George A. Kimmel, the man of mystery who led a dual life for fourteen years and upon whose brain an operation was performed to restore lost memory, challenges his enemies to a duel fight. He has almost fully recovered, and says he is going to expose them; whole plot against him. He declared the time was ripe to act and is preparing to institute suits against those responsible for his condition, and will sue for possession of property which he says he owned when he disappeared in 1898.

Kimmel has just returned from Michigan. It was the intention of his physicians to keep him in some small town to remain quiet, so that the injured brain cells could be restored to normal condition.

So speedily has Kimmel's condition improved that he feels he has been completely cured, and chafes under the restriction placed upon him.

"I feel sufficiently recovered," said Kimmel, "to take the offensive instead of the defensive. I am in the city for that purpose. There is no need of waiting until October to prove my identity.
At that time the suit brought by my sister, Edna against the New York Life Insurance company, is supposed to come up. Believe me, that case will never be tried. Before that time I will be in the midst of court procedure to obtain what belongs to me."
